

KS2 Unit 5 Lesson 2 Romance Languages Worksheet

1. Match the questions to the answers

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. How many people speak Romance Languages? | a. Spanish, Portuguese, French, Italian, and Romanian. |
| 2. How many Romance languages are there? | b. Mostly in the Americas, Europe, and Africa. |
| 3. In which parts of the world are they spoken? | c. More than 900 million. |
| 4. Which Romance Languages have the most speakers? | d. 43. |

2. What similarities and differences do you notice in the grid below?

French	Italian	Spanish	Portuguese
lundi	lunedì	lunes	segunda-feira
mardi	martedì	martes	terça-feira
mercredi	mercoledì	miércoles	quarta-feira
jeudi	giovedì	jueves	quinta-feira
vendredi	venerdì	viernes	sexta-feira
samedi	sabato	sábado	sábado
dimanche	domenica	domingo	domingo

3. Spotting more links... Circle the cognates!

Can you spot these words in the following languages?

my town

July

party

music

first big

Spanish	El primero de julio hay una gran fiesta en mi ciudad. Hay mucha comida, bebida y música .
Italian	Il primo luglio c'è una grande festa nella mia città. C'è un sacco di cibo, bevande e musica .
French	Le premier juillet il y a une grande fête dans ma ville. Il y a beaucoup de nourriture, de boisson et de musique.

What is the name of the language that Romance languages originated from?

What are the most widely spoken Romance languages?

Mention three similarities between Romance languages.